

2008

Saturday 30th August
→ 6th of September

The Norwegian Vikings 3rd Invasion of the South - though in a more friendly way than the previous...

This time - according to my knowledge no women have been raped and no monasteries plundered - we have really improved - or have we?

But we did like the boat,
the crew and the food. <sup>▽ (Not to talk about the food...)</sup>
We would really like to come back, perhaps next year.

The humour was also fabulous,
and we had had lots of good
jokes and good laughs.
I even got a bay called after me - "Caramba Bay".

We sincerely would like to thank you from the deep of our hearts!
 "Fort! Fort!"

"Skal vi slippe anker?"

Actually we are talking about forming the famous society: "The Norwegian-Croatian Society of Jokes and Good Laughs" Hakuna Matata!

Thanks from King Neptune / Caramba Bay / Kunta Kinte!
